ETHICS IN MEDIA COMMUNICATIONS
CASES AND CONTROVERSIES

Louis Alvin Day
Louisiana State University
CONTENTS

Preface ix

Introduction xi

PART ONE: FOUNDATIONS AND PRINCIPLES 1

CHAPTER 1 Ethics and Moral Development 2
The Study of Ethics: An Overview 2
The Three Branches of Ethics 4
Ethical Communication 5
The Value of Ethics Education 6
Contents of a Course in Media Ethics 8
Developing Ethical Fitness 9
The First Principles of Moral Virtue 10
Credibility 10
Integrity 11
Civility 11
The Formation of Ethical Values and Attitudes 13
Defining Values and Attitudes 13
Sources of Values and Attitudes 14
The Ethical Dilemma: Conflict of Values 16
Summary 19
Notes 20

CHAPTER 2 Ethics and Society 22
The Need for a System of Ethics 22
Society and Moral Anchors 22
The Functions of the Media within the Ethical System 24
Requirements of a System of Ethics 27
Shared Values 27
Wisdom 27
Justice 28
Freedom 28
Accountability 29
The Social Compact and Moral Duties 29
The Two Levels of Moral Duty 29
Deciding among Moral Duties 31
The Nexus of Law and Ethics 33
Institutional Autonomy and Social Responsibility 35
The Libertarian View 35
Social Responsibility 36
The Challenges of the Information Age 41
Convergence: New Media and Old Media 41
The Ethics of Cyberspace: Old Wine in New Bottles 42
The Media as Socially Responsible Institutions 44
Codes of Conduct 45
The Ombudsman System 47
News Councils 48
Summary 49
Notes 50
CHAPTER 3 Ethics and Moral Reasoning 53

Moral Reasoning and Ethical Decision Making 53
The Context of Moral Reasoning 54
The Philosophical Foundations of Moral Theory 55
  The Greek Connection 55
  The Judeo-Christian Ethic 56
  Kant and Moral Duty 56
  The Appeal of Utilitarianism 57
  The Ethics of Egalitarianism 58
  The Rise of Relativism 58
Ethical Theories in Moral Reasoning 59
  Deontological (Duty-Based) Theories 59
  Teleological (Consequence-Based) Theories 61
  Virtue Theories: Aristotle's Golden Mean 62

Critical Thinking in Moral Reasoning 63
A Model of Moral Reasoning 64
  The Situation Definition 65
  Analysis of the Situation 65
  Decision 66
A Sample Case Study 67
  Situation Definition 67
  Analysis 68
  Decision 71
Summary 72
Notes 72

PART TWO: CASES IN MEDIA COMMUNICATIONS 75

CHAPTER 4 Truth and Honesty in Media Communications 76

A World of Limited Truth 76
Truth as a Fundamental Value 78
The Importance of Truth 79
Media Practitioners and the Truth–Falsehood Dichotomy 81
  Truth in Journalism 82
  Infotainment: Where Truth and Fiction Collide 93
  Truth in Advertising and Public Relations 95
  Public Relations and Journalism:
    A Love–Hate Relationship 97
Intellectual Dishonesty 98
Truth Telling and Approaches to Moral Reasoning 101
Truth and Deception: Hypothetical Case Studies 101

CASE STUDIES 102

CASE 4-1: Crisis Management on the Web and the Framing of Truth 102

CASE 4-2: Hidden Cameras and the Journalist as Social Conscience 106
CASE 4-3: The Careless Chaperons and the Unbridled Teens 109
CASE 4-4: Digital Photography and the Manipulation of Reality 111
CASE 4-5: Tainted Research and the Right to Know 114
CASE 4-6: Selling a Pain Remedy: Literal Truth as Deception 117
CASE 4-7: The Media Consultant as the Truth Squad 119
CASE 4-8: Vow of Silence 122
Notes 125

CHAPTER 5 The Media and Privacy: A Delicate Balance 129

Ethics and Privacy: The Search for Meaning 129
The Value of Privacy 130
  The Emergence of Privacy as a Moral Value 131
  Privacy as a Legal Concept 132
The Need for an Ethics of Privacy 134
  Basic Principles 134
  Data Mining and Privacy in Cyberspace 136

Privacy and the Journalist: Some Special Problem Areas 137
  Contagious Diseases and Disabilities 138
  Homosexuality 139
  Sex Crimes 140
  Juvenile Offenders 142
  Using Children as Sources 143
  Suicides 144
  Secret Cameras and Recorders 145
  Accidents and Personal Tragedies 146
  Computers and Database Journalism 147

The Search for Journalistic Guidelines 149

Advertising and Privacy 150

Privacy: Hypothetical Case Studies 151

CASE STUDIES 152

CASE 5-1: The Pregnant Place Kicker 152
CASE 5-2: The Massacre at Langdale High and Laura's Secret Diary 154
CASE 5-3: In Vitro Fertilization and a Candidate's Family Secret 158
CASE 5-4: The Family Court Judge with a Mysterious Past 161
CASE 5-5: Courtroom Cameras and the Right to Privacy 164
CASE 5-6: The Right to Die with Dignity 167
CASE 5-7: Cyberspace Data Mining as a Public Relations Tool 169

Notes 172

CHAPTER 6 Confidentiality and the Public Interest 175

The Principle of Confidentiality 175
The Justification for Confidentiality 178
Seeking Disclosure: The Moral Position of the Actor 179

Confidentiality in Journalism: Some Special Concerns 181
  The Case for and against Confidentiality 181

A Delicate Balance: Confidentiality and Competing Interests 183

Changes in the Reporter–Source Relationship 184

The Principle of Confidentiality: Hypothetical Case Studies 185

CASE STUDIES 186

CASE 6-1: Smallpox as a Weapon of Mass Destruction 186
CASE 6-2: A Public Relations Challenge: Fraud in a University's Basketball Program 189
CASE 6-3: The Online Editor and the Secret Negotiations 193
CASE 6-4: Gender Norming and the Admiral's Public Relations Problem 195
CASE 6-5: Attorney–Client Privilege and the Public's Right to Know 199
CASE 6-6: Client Confidentiality in Radio Sales 202
CASE 6-7: The Student Newspaper and Faculty Evaluations 203

Notes 207

CHAPTER 7 Conflicts of Interest 208

Conflicts of Interest: Real and Imagined 208

Recognizing Conflicts: The Most Troublesome Terrain 210
  Conflicting Relationships 210
  Conflicting Public Participation 217
  Vested Interests and Hidden Agendas 220

Approaches to Dealing with Conflicts of Interest 222

Conflicts of Interest: Hypothetical Case Studies 222

CASE STUDIES 223

CASE 7-1: A Riverboat Casino Seeks Public Relations Counsel 223
CASE 7-2: DNA Testing: A Journalist's Call for Justice 225
CASE 7-3: The NABJ and Divided Loyalties 228
CASE 7-4: A Witness to Genocide 231
CASE 7-5: Campus Journalists and the Tobacco Wars 233
CASE 7-6: Switching Sides in Public Relations 237
CASE 7-7: Cable's Friend in Congress 240
Notes 242

CHAPTER 8 Economic Pressures and Social Responsibility 245

Economic Interests versus Moral Obligations 245
Concentration of Media Ownership 246
The Alliance of Mass Media and Marketing 248
The Role of Advertising 253
The Media's Lifeline: The Ethical Challenges of Commercial Sponsorship 253
The Challenges of Cyberspace 255
Product Placements 256
Economic Pressures: Hypothetical Case Studies 257

CASE STUDIES 257

CASE 8-1: Web-Based Ads and the Search Engine's Search for Financial Stability 257
CASE 8-2: The Talk Show as News Lead-In 260
CASE 8-3: The Commercialization of PBS 262
CASE 8-4: The Alumni Magazine: Journalism or Public Relations? 265
CASE 8-5: Product Placement in Prime Time 268
CASE 8-6: Slain Civil Rights Heroes as Commercial Props 270
CASE 8-7: The Junket as a Public Relations Tool 273
Notes 275

CHAPTER 9 The Media and Antisocial Behavior 278

The Influence of the Media on Behavior 278
Media Lessons and Moral Responsibility 279
Antisocial Acts and Professional Obligations 279
The Media's Influence on Antisocial Behavior 280
The Media and Civility 289
Uncivil Behavior 289
Hate Speech 290
Dirty Tricks 292
The Media and Antisocial Behavior: Hypothetical Case Studies 293

CASE STUDIES 293

CASE 9-1: Online Ads for AIDS Drugs and the Promotion of Unsafe Sex 293
CASE 9-2: Investigating Child Pornography: Limits of the First Amendment 296
CASE 9-3: Sports Trash Talk and the End of Innocence 299
CASE 9-4: Alcohol Ads in the Campus Newspaper 301
CASE 9-5: Online Links to Terrorist Home Pages 304
CASE 9-6: Violence in the Nation's Schools: A Radical Proposal 307
CASE 9-7: Drug Scenes on Prime-Time Television 310
Notes 312

CHAPTER 10 Morally Offensive Content: Freedom and Responsibility 314

Society's Surveillance of Offensive Material 314
Pornography, Indecency, and Moral Responsibility 315
Offensive Speech 320
CONTENTS

11 Media Content and Juveniles: Special Ethical Concerns 346

Juveniles and Cultural Paternalism 346
Influences on the Juvenile Audience 348
Movies 348
Recordings 349
Television 349
Advertising 351

The Juvenile Audience: Hypothetical Case Studies 353

CASE STUDIES 354

CASE 11-1: Nottoway Landing's Cult Following among Young Female Viewers 354

11 Media Practitioners and Social Justice 372

The Principle of Formal Justice 372
Media Practitioners and Social Justice: Two Views 372
The Libertarian Concept of Justice 373
The Egalitarian Concept and Social Responsibility 374
The Mainstream: A Philosophical Blend 375
Social Justice and Ethical Decision Making 385
The Media and Social Justice: Hypothetical Case Studies 386

CASE STUDIES 387

CASE 12-1: Diversity in the Public Relations Workplace: Race and Social Justice 387
CASE 12-2: Litigation Public Relations as a Tool of Justice 390
CASE 12-3: Christian Advocacy Ads and Homosexuality 393
CASE 12-4: The African-American Publisher and Divided Loyalties 397
CASE 12-5: International Public Relations, Morality, and Social Justice 399
CASE 12-6: Environmental Justice and Media Access 402

Notes 405
CHAPTER 13 Stereotypes in Media Communications 408

The Concept of Stereotypes 408
The Role of Stereotypes in Media Content 410
   Racial and Ethnic Minorities 411
   Female Stereotypes 414
   Sexual Orientation and Stereotypical Depictions 415
   The Elderly 416
   The Disabled 417

Strategies for Confronting Media Stereotyping 418

Stereotypes and the Media: Hypothetical Case Studies 419

CASE STUDIES 419

CASE 13-1: Framing the Gay and Lesbian Issue for the Public Square 419
CASE 13-2: Television News and Stereotypical Symbols 422
CASE 13-3: Gender Wars and Sexual Stereotyping 425
CASE 13-4: The Disabled Athlete in Television Fiction 427
CASE 13-5: The American Indians’ Battle with the Major Leagues 430
CASE 13-6: The Television Teacher and Stereotyping at Central High 434

Notes 437

Epilogue 439

A Couple of Lessons from This Text 439
The State of Media Ethics: Mixed Signals 440
The Newest Frontier: The Ethical Challenges of Cyberspace 441
Toward Greater Ethical Awareness: What Can Be Done? 441

APPENDIX 1 Society of Professional Journalists: Code of Ethics 445

APPENDIX 3 Public Relations Society of America: Code of Ethics 448

Selected Bibliography 453
Index 456