Contents

Director's Preface
ADELE SEEFF 7

Introduction
ARTHUR K. WHEELOCK, JR. 9

Part 1. Civic Culture and Private Identity

The Public and the Private: Public Space in Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century Amsterdam
R. E. KISTEMAKER 17

Descriptions of Towns in the Seventeenth-Century Province of Holland
Eco HAIJTSMA MULIER 24

Private Interests, Public Policies: Petitions in the Dutch Republic
HENK VAN NIEROP 33

Part 2. Private Citizens and Public Images

Propagandist Prints, Reaffirming Paintings: Art and Community during the Twelve Years' Truce
H. PERRY CHAPMAN 43

On "Swelling" the Hips and Crossing the Legs: Distinguishing Public and Private in Paintings and Prints from the Dutch Golden Age
HERMAN ROODENBURG 64

Armed Citizens: The Representation of the Civic Militias in the Seventeenth Century
PAUL KNEVEL 85

Gerard ter Borch's Military Men: Masculinity Transformed
ALISON MCNEIL KETTERING 100
Part 3. Social Expectations and Personal Ethics

Representations of Labor and Diligence in Late-Sixteenth-Century Netherlandish Art: The Secularization of the Work Ethic 123
ILJA M. VELDMAN

Early Netherlandish Bordeeltjes and the Construction of Social "Realities" 141
NANETTE SALOMON

Images of Private Life in Some Early-Seventeenth-Century Dutch Ego-Documents 164
MIEKE B. SMITS-VELDT

Part 4. Religion and Representations of Charity

JUDITH POLLMANN

Public Places, Private Lives: The Impact of the Dutch Revolt on the Reformed Churches in Holland 191
CAROL JANSON

Public or Private Portraits: Group Portraits of Amsterdam Regents and Regentesses 206
MICHELIJ JONKER

LINDA STONE-FERRIER

Contributors 266

Index 269