Figures
Contributors
Acknowledgements

Introduction
Tom Nichols

Section One: Others and Outcasts in Northern Art of the Sixteenth Century

1 Picturing Antichrist and Others in the Prado Epiphany by Hieronymus Bosch
   Debra Higgs Strickland
   11

2 The Vagabond Image: Depictions of False Beggars in Northern Art of the Sixteenth Century
   Tom Nichols
   37

Section Two: Imagery of the Deserving and Institutionalized Poor in Italian Art

3 Poor Substitutes: Imaging Disease and Vagrancy in Renaissance Venice
   Philip Cottrell
   63

4 Poverty and Papal Piety in Rome c. 1600: Painting, Pastoralism and Spectacle
   Peter Higginson
   87
5 Blindness, Lameness and Mendicancy in Italy (from the 14th to the 18th Centuries)
Livio Pestilli

Section Three: Insiders/Outsiders: Visualizing the Social Margins

6 The Caravaggesque Toothpuller
John Gash

7 Relics of the Golden Age: the Vagabond Philosopher
Helen Langdon

8 Constructing the Black Slave in Early Modern Spanish Painting
Carmen Fracchia

9 'Some tymes J have a shillinge aday, and some tymes nothinge, so that J leve in great poverty': British Actors in the Paintings of Frans Hals
M. A. Katritzky

10 In Search of the Marginal and the Outcast: The 'Lower Orders' in the Cries of London and Dublin
Sean Shesgreen

Bibliography
Index