Table of contents

Acknowledgments ix

On information structure, meaning and form
Generalizations across languages 1
Kerstin Schwabe, Susanne Winkler

Part I. Information structure and grammar
Generalizations across languages

Phases and the typology of focus constructions 33
Hans Bernhard Drubig

1.1 Topics and topicalization across languages

The prosody of topicalization 69
Caroline Véry

Types of topics in German and Italian 87
Mara Frascarelli and Roland Hinterhölzl

The Korean particle nun, the English fall-rise accent, and thetic/categorical judgements 117
Jorunn Hetland

Topicalization in Malagasy, Tagalog and Tsou 129
Paul Law

On the discourse configurationality of West Germanic 155
Laszlo Molnárfi

Topic, focus and default vs. contrastive accent
Typological differences with respect to discourse prominence 183
Werner Abraham
1.2 Focus and focus movement across languages

Identifying inferences in focus
   Dan Wedgwood

Focus structure and the interpretation of multiple questions
   Baldzs Surdnyi

Focus structure, movement to spec-Foe and syntactic processing
   Carsten Breul

Focus and marked positions for VP adverbs
   Edward Göbbel

Ellipsis and inversion: A synchronic and diachronic perspective
   Remus Gergel, Kirsten Gengel and Susanne Winkler

The subject/object asymmetry in Northern Sotho
   Sabine Zerbian

Wide focus interpretation with fronted focus exponents in Czech
   Denisa Lenertovd and Uwe Junghanns

In place - out of place? Focus in Hausa
   Katharina Hartmann and Make Zimmermann

Part II. Information structure and pragmatics
   Clause structure and context

Instructions for interpretation as separate performatives
   Paul Portner

Interrogative complement clauses
   Kerstin Schwabe

The syntax and pragmatics of embedded yes/no questions
   Regine Eckardt

Toward a uniform analysis of short answers and gapping
   Ingo Reich

Alternative Semantics for definite NPs
   Klaus von Heusinger
Bare plurals as topics in English and Italian 509

Ariel Cohen

References 523

Name Index 559

Subject Index 563
PPN: 260818054
Bibliographischer Datensatz im SWB-Verbund