Introduction

Alain Chatriot, Marie-Emmanuelle Chessel and Matthew Hilton

Part 1 Early Consumer Activism

1 'Through the Medium of Their Pockets': Sabbatarianism, Free Produce, Non Intercourse and the Significance of 'Early Modern' Consumer Activism

Lawrence B. Glickman

2 The Moral Expertise of the British Consumer, c. 1900: A Debate between the Christian Social Union and the Webbs

Julien Vincent

3 Consumers' Leagues in France: A Transatlantic Perspective

Marie-Emmanuelle Chessel

Part 2 Consumer Expertise in War and Peace

4 Educating Consumers, Representing Consumers: Reforming the Marketplace through Scientific Expertise at the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, 1923-1940

Carolyn M. Goldstein

5 The Enemy Within: Food, Nutrition Experts and Consumers in French-Speaking Switzerland, 1900-1946

Joëlle Droux

6 Shopping for an 'Economic Miracle': Gendered Politics of Consumer Citizenship in Divided Germany

Katherine Pence
Part 3 Consumers in the Society of Consumption

7 Consumers' Associations and the State: Protection and Defence of the Consumer in France, 1950-2000
   Alain Chatriot

8 Shopping for the 'People's Home': Consumer Planning in Norway and Sweden after the Second World War
   Helin Theien

9 The Entrepreneurial Ethic and the Spirit of Consumerism: Finances and Strategy in the US Consumer Movement
   Robert N. Mayer

10 Living in the City Differently: The Birth of New Expertise in France in the 1960s and 1970s
   Odile Join-Lambert and Yves Lochard

11 The Organised Consumer Movement since 1945
   Matthew Hilton

Index