Contents

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS vii

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS ix

Introduction
Angelika Malinar 1

IRREVERSIBILITY AND REPETITION:
HISTORICAL CONSTRUCTIONS AND RELIGIOUS DISCOURSE

1. Time Concepts, Social Identities and Historical Consciousness in Early India
Romila Thapar 23

2. The King’s Own Time: The Ahka System of Orissa
Georg Berkemer 39

3. Interconnecting Parallel Times: Notions of Time in the Caitanya Tradition
Angelika Malinar 55

4. Babas and Alekhs: Notes on Concepts of Time and Social Change in a Contemporary Ascetic Doctrine
Lidia Guzy 81

RITUAL TIME AND LIFE-CYCLE:
COLLECTIVE REPRESENTATIONS, INDIVIDUAL NEEDS

5. Rhythms of Life: Ritual Time and Historical Time
Frédérique Apffel-Marglin 99

6. Time for Ritual: The Pañjls of Puri and Jajpur
Heinrich von Stietencron 123

7. Cosmic Time and its Influence on Rona Girls and Women
Tina Otten 137

8. Children Sold and Thrown Away: Temporary Identifications in a Converging Tribal and Caste Society
Uwe Skoda 157

9. Memory, Performance and the Regeneration of Society Among the Koya
Ulrich Demmer 185
Contents

COPING WITH MODERN HISTORIOGRAPHY:
TIME AND THE PROBLEM OF IDENTITY

10. Maṇikeśvarī and Dokrl: Changing Representations of Two Tribal Goddesses and the Dynastic Histories of Orissa
    Cornelia Mallebrein
    Page 203

11. Casting a Glorious Past: Loss and Retrieval of the 01 Chiki Script
    Barbara Lotz
    Page 235

12. Changing One’s Own Identity: The Role of Language in the Transformation of a Subregional Tradition
    GM Dash
    Page 265

13. Imagined Chronologies: Perceptions of ‘Development’ as a Tool in Mapping Oriya Identity
    Jayanta Sengupta
    Page 287

INDEX
Page 315