CONTENTS

Acknowledgements vii
List of contributors viii

Introduction: an assessment of Saudi political, religious and media expansion 1
Madawi Al-Rasheed

PART I
POLITICS BEYOND FRONTIERS

1. Between imara, empire and oil: Saudis in the frontier society of the Persian Gulf 39
   Nelida Fuccaro

2. Saudi expansion: the Lebanese connection, 1924—1952 65
   Fawwaz Traboulsi

3. Determinants and characteristics of Saudi role in Lebanon: the post-civil war years 79
   As'ad AbuKbatil

4. Ambivalent ally: Saudi Arabia and the 'war on terror' 99
   Roger Hardy

5. Producing 'reformed Islam': a Saudi contribution to the US projects of global governance 113
   Saliva Ismail

6. Kingdom with borders: the political economy of Saudi—European relations 135
   Paul Aarts, Roos Meertens and Joris van Duijne

PART II
THE PROSPECTS AND LIMITS OF RELIGIOUS EXPANSION

7. The refutation of Wahhabism in Arabic sources, 1745—1932 157
   Hamadi Redissi
8 The role of religious ideology in the expansionist policies of Saudi Arabia  183
  Saeed Shehabi

9 The minaret and the palace: obedience at home and rebellion abroad  199
  Madawi Al-Rasheed

10 Yusuf al-Uyairi and the transnationalisation of Saudi jihadism  221
  Roel Meijer

11 Salafism in Yemen: a 'Saudisation'?  245
  Laurent Bonnefoy

12 Saudi expansion, the Salafi campaign and Arabised Islam in Indonesia  263
  Noorhaidi Hasan

13 The 'Arab' in global militancy  283
  Faisal Devji

14 Saudi Arabian expansion in the United States: half-hearted missionary work meets rock-solid resistance  301
  Eleanor Abdella Doumato

PART III
THE MEDIA AND MULTIPLE ACTORS

15 Saudi Arabia's media mask  323
  Mai Yamani

16 Maintaining Saudi Arabia's cordon sanitaire in the Arab media  335
  Andrew Hammond

17 Bedouinisation or liberalisation of culture? The paradox in the Saudi monopoly of the Arab media  353
  Noha Mellor

Index  375