Contents

List of contributors vii
Acknowledgements x

Introduction 1

1 Constitutional mythology and the future of Second Amendment jurisprudence after Heller 8
SAUL CORNELL

2 The Second Amendment right to self-defence: the core freedom in the new century 25
JOYCE LEE MALCOLM

3 Annie, get your gun: women, performance and the western heroine 36
KAREN JONES

4 “A gun is a gun in anyone’s hand”: shooting the gang girl in Mi Vida Loca 48
EMMA HORREX

5 “The thought of a black male with a weapon scares America”: African Americans, the Second Amendment, and the racial politics of armed self-defense in the civil rights era and beyond 65
SIMON WENDT AND REBECCA RÖSSLING

6 From virtuous armed citizen to “cramped little risk-fearing man”: the meaning of firearms in an insecure era 83
KEVIN YUILL

7 Gun rights and the rule of law 98
FIRMIN DEBRABANDER
Contents

8 To endure for all time or to change with the times?
The Supreme Court and the Second Amendment 110
EMMA LONG

9 Mr Gingrich’s bequest: globalising the Second Amendment? 123
PETER SQUIRES

10 The universal right of self-defense and the auxiliary right to defensive arms 139
DAVID B. KOPEL

Index 155